

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Ann Sica
Telephone: 703-960-3772
E-mail: annsica@aol.com
Web site: www.virginiachamberorchestra.org

WHAT: Collaborative Concert: Virginia Chamber Orchestra, GMU's Mason Symphony Orchestra, and University Singers present An Evening of Mozart and Mendelssohn

WHEN: Wednesday, April 2, 2014 at 8:00 P.M.

WHERE: Hylton Performing Arts Center
10960 George Mason Drive
Manassas, VA 20109

FEATURES: Mendelssohn Symphony No. 3, Op. 56 (Scottish), Mozart Requiem

TICKETS: Purchase on line at www.hyltoncenter.org or at the door

PARKING: Free.

Additional information at www.virginiachamberorchestra.org
Telephone message line: 703-758-0179

VCO, GMU's MASON SYMPHONY and SINGERS COLLABORATE for AN EVENING OF MOZART AND MENDELSSOHN

Virginia Chamber Orchestra named "Ensemble in Residence" at GMU

The Virginia Chamber Orchestra, George Mason University's Mason Symphony Orchestra and the University Singers will present An Evening of Mozart and Mendelssohn on Wednesday, April 2nd, at 8 pm in the Hylton Performing Arts Center on the Prince William campus at 4373 Mason Pond Drive.

The Virginia Chamber Orchestra is honored to be named an ensemble in residence at GMU's School of Music. The VCO will open the program with Mozart's Divertimento in D major, K. 126. Mason Symphony members will then have a unique opportunity to share a stand with the VCO's seasoned professional players to perform Mendelssohn's Symphony No. 3 in A minor, Op. 56 (Scottish) at the Hylton Performing Arts Center in Manassas, VA. Dr. Dennis M. Layendecker will conduct the orchestral works.

Mozart's Requiem will conclude the program, with seven outstanding student soloists alternating in the four solo roles. Dr. Stan Engebretson will lead the soloists, University Singers, and orchestra.

About the Virginia Chamber Orchestra

David Grandis was engaged as Music Director of the Virginia Chamber Orchestra 2013. The quality and vitality of the Virginia Chamber Orchestra's performances attract enthusiastic concert attendees from all Virginia suburbs, Maryland, and the District of Columbia. Listeners appreciate the transparent, intimate sound of a chamber ensemble as well as its power, richness, and remarkable dynamic range. In the words of a Washington Post critic, the maestro evokes "energetic excitement" from his players. The repertoire spans the centuries, ranging from Bach to Bartók and beyond. Celebrating its 43rd season, the Virginia Chamber Orchestra is also committed to community outreach and education. Concerts include partnerships with Wounded Warriors, Our Military Kids, and their families. The VCO also makes programs available to students nationwide via the Internet to further enhance the integration of musical heritage into current curriculum. Visit www.virginiachamberorchestra.org for more information.

###